

ENTERING THE REALM OF HEAVEN.

We need to learn how to step into heaven by faith.

Ephesians 2: ⁶And hath raised us up together (an action that happened at a specific point in the past, to cause to raise together with), and made us sit together (specific point past, cause to sit down with) in (intimate union with, remaining in) heavenly places (existing in heaven, things that take place in heaven, what pertains to heaven, where we possess every spiritual blessing) In (intimate union with) Christ (anointing) Jesus (Jehovah is salvation):

Our spirit has been resurrected with Christ and seated with him in heavenly places. Our spirit is dimensional, so that it can be in heaven and aware of what is taking place there, it can sense what is going on, although our soul might not yet be able to picture this, by faith our spirit can partake of it.

Heaven is as close as the air we breathe, it is another dimension, and it is something that we have to learn how to tune into.

We can come boldly to the throne of grace, to receive grace and mercy in time of need. This is something our spirit has access to. Our spirit has to enter this realm in order to receive the grace and mercy, it flows into our spirit.

We also have our own throne in heaven that we have to learn how to sit upon in our spirit, in order to exercise authority. We receive His lordship, His authority in our spirit so that our spirit can rule our soul and body.

It is as our spirit ascends into the heavenly places in Christ, that it receives revelation to discern what the will of God is concerning a matter.

By faith we step into heaven and see ourselves seated in heavenly places.

It is through our communion spirit to spirit with the Lord that we come into an oneness of the spirit. It is in that oneness of spirit with the Lord, that our spirit can sense what the will of the Lord is.

Once the lord reveals what his will is concerning a situation, with that revelation comes the authority to bring it to pass upon the earth.

We are the voice of God upon the earth and the angels enforce the will of God and bring it to pass.

It is through the authority that we access in heaven, that we can enforce the will of God in the earth. But we have to go into that realm, where our throne is, in the heavens. And bring the will of God out of heaven down with us into the earthly realm.

We step in and receive our lordship; we receive the authority to rule upon the mountain that is operating within our spirit. Our spirit is a mountain, a place of rule and authority.

It is as we step into the heavenly realms, that God invests in us the right and the authority to rule.

Our spirit has to access the heavenly realms so that it can be invested with authority, then it has to step back into the earthly realm to administer that authority.

We have to learn how to live in our spirit, how to walk in the spirit, to step into heaven, to step back into the earthly realm.

The first love gate in our spirit is a two way gate, giving heaven access to us and giving us access to heaven. When we are filled with the Spirit, when the river of life flows into our spirit, we become aware of the realm of God, we become aware of His Spirit. The infilling of the Spirit causes an awareness in our spirit that becomes a doorway or gateway an access point where we become aware of a reality of another world. We become aware of God entering into our world, but we are also entering into his world, it is where heaven meets earth so that we now become a gateway of two worlds, heaven and earth.

We become the vehicle to plant heaven on earth, to create an atmosphere of heaven on earth.

Our spirit is dimensional; we can go places in our spirit. We have to learn how to expand our spirit, so that it is on the outside of our body.

When we are troubled in our soul, our soul is out in front of us, we are more aware of our soul than our spirit and we have to step back into our spirit. There is a seat of rest in our spirit that we have to enter into. We can only function in our spirit when we in that place of rest.

Our spirit has access to all the realms of God. Our will has direct control over our spirit. Our spirit has to be trained, and it is through the imagination gate in our soul, that we can picture the images the word of God gives us, so that our spirit has something to anchor itself on.

Once our spirit experiences something, we need to journal it, because our spirit can revisit that experience.

Our soul and spirit are to work together. Our soul assists our spirit so that our spirit can grow and develop in what it experiences.

We use the natural realm, which our soul is aware of to give our spirit something to lay hold of.

The life of God flows out of heaven into our spirit, but our spirit can ascend back into that heavenly realm.

We need to practice stepping in and out of the realms of heaven so that our spirit learns how to do this. We step into the realm of heaven; we step back out of the realm of heaven and bring heavenly authority back with us and apply it to our life.

If there are things going on during the day that are contrary, we can just step into the realms of heaven, Receive the robes of righteousness and then step out of the realm of heaven and exercise authority in the righteousness of God, here on earth.

In order to step in and out of heaven in our spirit, our spirit has to be strong. It is our spirit that appropriates things so that it is invested with authority, invested with the attributes of God.

Our soul is also a dimensional place in which our spirit can visit. When the bible talks about our heart it is talking about our soul. There are four chambers in our heart. We have a garden in our soul that we can meet God in. We have to learn how to plant things in our heart so that they can grow.

We receive His lordship, His authority in our spirit, for our spirit to rule our body, rule our soul, and have authority. We operate in the authority of the kingdom: in heaven, in our lives, in our spirit.

So we develop that spiritual connection with God where the River of Life is flowing, where the garden of God becomes the garden in our heart. As it is in heaven, so it is outworked on earth, in and through us.

We can learn to step in every day into the realm of the kingdom. We open up the door in our spirit and let the King of glory come in. He will rule on the throne of our life as we surrender the rule of our life to Him.

When we first start exercising our spirit in this way, He rules over it. We surrender our life to Him. as we learn how to walk with him and our spirit begins to grow and develop in the attributes of God and we mature then He starts to give us more and more authority to rule with him, he begins to entrust us with things. He trusts us to do the things on earth as in heaven. Once we have learned how to surrender our spirit, soul and body, He will give us the throne in our own life to rule with Him.

We have a covenant with God, a partnership with him. we are co-laborers, we do everything together.

We enthrone Him over our life. We administer his Lordship over our lives. We exercise that lordship on our spirit-gates, on our soul gates and body-gates.

As we practice pressing into heaven, pressing into the kingdom within us, pressing into the attributes and gifts of the Spirit. we will find God more and more manifesting through our life every day.

The Glory of God is in the very center of our being. As we learn how to access heaven with our spirit, the life of God will flow from the throne into our spirit, we are letting God invade every area of our lives, we are letting him flow into us, we are letting him flow out of us into the world around us bringing the rule of heaven into the earth.

The more the river of life flows through the gates of our spirit, soul and body, the wider they will become and the more of God that can be manifested in our daily lives.
