

GATEWAY PRAYERS FOR OUR SPIRIT GATES

Father I surrender control of my life to you. I choose to engage the fear of the lord gate in my spirit. I open it and I surrender it to the flow of your Glory and holiness, search my heart and see if there be any wicked way in me, any motives of self, let me see it through your eyes that repentance may be granted to me.

Father I surrender the control of my life to you. Father, I choose to engage the gate of “Reverence” in my spirit. I open it and surrender it to the flow of your glory and the river of life. I declare that you are Lord of my reverence gate. I receive and release the power of God through this gate so that reverence will be the motivation that enables me to honor you in all my decisions, choices and behavior. I release reverence to engage my conscience and protect and direct what I see, hear, smell, touch, taste, say and do.

Father I surrender the control of my life to you. Father, I choose to engage the gate of “Revelation” in my spirit. I open it and I surrender it to the flow of your glory and the river of life. I declare that you are Lord of my revelation gate. I receive and release your power through this gate with a flow of the revelation of your kingdom, my identity and destiny, so that it will change my soul into the image of the Son of God who abides in me.

Father I surrender the control of my life to you. I choose to engage the prayer gate in my spirit. I receive and release you power to flow through this gateway. Help me to discern all your communication to me. I receive your spontaneous thoughts into my mind, I receive what you are feeling, help me to receive impressions and see pictures on the screen of my mind concerning your will for my life.

Father I surrender the control of my life to you. I choose to engage my intuition gate; I declare that you are lord of it. I receive and release your power through this gate, so that I will intuitively know what you are leading me to do.

Father I surrender the control of my life to you. Father I engage the faith gate in my spirit, I thank you lord that I hear your voice. I receive and release your power to flow through this gateway that I may act upon the revelation that I receive from you.

Father I surrender the control of my life to you. Father I engage the hope gate in my spirit. I receive and release your power to flow through this gateway. I ask you to reveal my destiny scroll, the living works prepared from me to walk in, that I may fulfill my destiny.

Father I surrender the control of my life to you. Father I engage the worship gate in my spirit. I receive and release your power to flow through it. I bow to your lordship, empower me to obey you in all things, I choose to worship you in spirit and in truth.
